

17 Ways Rich People Think Differently*

Rich

Rich people believe "I create my life."

Rich people play the money game to win.

Rich people are committed to being rich.

Rich people think big.

Rich people focus on opportunities.

Rich people admire other rich and successful people.

Rich people associate with positive, successful people.

Rich people are willing to promote themselves and their value.

Rich people are bigger than their problems.

Rich people are excellent receivers.

Rich people choose to get paid based on results.

Rich people think "both."

Rich people focus on their net worth.

Rich people manage their money well.

Rich people have their money work hard for them.

Rich people act in spite of fear.

Rich people constantly learn and grow.

Poor

Poor people believe, "Life happens to me."

Poor people play the money game to not lose.

Poor people want to be rich.

Poor people think small.

Poor people focus on obstacles.

Poor people resent rich and successful people.

Poor people associate with negative or unsuccessful people.

Poor people think negatively about selling and promotion.

Poor people are smaller than their problems.

Poor people are poor receivers.

Poor people choose to get paid based on time.

Poor people think "either/or."

Poor people focus on their working income.

Poor people mismanage their money well.

Poor people work hard for their money.

Poor people let fear stop them.

Poor people think they already know.